

Forklift Instructor Re-registration - 3 Days

Successful completion of a 3 day re-registration course enables instructors to renew their registration onto the RTITB National Register of Instructor. "The Professional Register" for a period of 5 years, at the same time they can refresh and update their instructional skills.

It is imperative and expected that any delegate attending a course with a minimum of three days duration, will have very high levels of instructional ability and they are regularly delivering operator courses to the RTITB Accredited standards.

Note: There is an extremely limited time on this course for any practical re-training or practice you really do need to be at the top of your game on this course.

FT4U always recommended those instructors that do not deliver operator courses to RTITB Accredited standards on a regular basis (Daily or weekly) should attend a course of a minimum of 5 days duration.

Course dates:

- 28th - 30th October 2015
- 30th November – 2nd December 2015
